Houston, TX – Saturday, March 2, 2019

BACKGROUND ON COMMUNITY TICKETS

It is important to Mrs. Obama that her BECOMING events are accessible to as many people as possible – not just those with means or who happened to be by a computer when the tickets went on sale. That’s why – in partnership with Live Nation – Mrs. Obama is giving away thousands of complimentary tickets to people around the country, particularly to young people growing up in communities like she did. Mrs. Obama wants everyone, but especially these young people, to see themselves in her story — to see the value in the fullness of their stories and to imagine who they might become in the years ahead.
